

DRAFTER'S NOTE FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-1927/2dn
PJK:jld:wnw

April 11, 2007

This redraft incorporates Assembly Amendments 1, 3, and 4 to 2005 Assembly Bill 400. It also repeals s. 767.481 (5m) (a), leaving the consolidation of s. 767.481 (5m) (intro.) and (b) as sub. (5m). (2005 Assembly Bill 400 repealed s. 767.481 (5m), which did not include par. (b) at the time.)

One other change in this redraft is that I have added a cross-reference to current law s. 767.481 (6) (a) in proposed s. 767.481 (7), which is from Assembly Amendment 1 to 2005 Assembly Bill 400. That amendment did not address current law s. 767.481 (6) (c), which states that subs. (1) to (5) do not apply to the notice required under s. 767.481 (6) (a). By adding the cross-reference in s. 767.481 (7), I have made the contempt of court provision apply to a parent who does not provide the notice under s. 767.481 (6) (a). Alternatively, you could include a cross-reference to sub. (7) in s. 767.481 (6) (c), which would make the contempt of court provision not apply to a parent who does not provide the notice under s. 767.481 (6) (a). Let me know if you want this changed or if you have any questions about it.

Pamela J. Kahler
Senior Legislative Attorney
Phone: (608) 266-2682
E-mail: pam.kahler@legis.wisconsin.gov